

Kenneth L. Fields died Wednesday in Nashville. He was a resident of Pulaski and 53 years old. A former Giles County Commissioner, he was member of the Queen Ann Funeral Home Staff.

Visitation will begin Monday at 11am at First Baptist Church of Pulaski. Services will follow during the noon hour.

Visitation will be held Sunday from 5-7pm at the Baptist Association Central Building.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Reed of Pulaski, sister Coretta Young of Nashville and brothers Pastor Joe Fields of Texas, Eric Fields of Kentucky and Robert Lane Reed of Pulaski. Many nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends also survive.

Jordan Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements for Kenneth L. Fields.